PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

You'll love this amazing cul de sac location! You can walk to Heardmont Park. This neighborhood is conveniently placed between 280 and 65 for easy access most any direction. Tons of space make this home the buy of the year in the area. Closets abound. Extra space is found on the lower level for home office, guest space, or playroom, and even more storage. The large garage easily accommodates two cars, and the third one is built for toys, machinery, and motorcycles. Soaring ceilings in the living and dining area make the house feel even more open. French doors lead from the dining and breakfast rooms to the rear deck overlooking the back yard. Everything you need is under one roof.
